

The Centre for World Indigenous Knowledge and Research
at Athabasca University

Is honoured to present as part of our Four Seasons Speakers' Series:

Dr. Roger Maaka

Ngati Kahungunu Ngai Tahu

Dr. Maaka will be presenting on the topic:
'Reclaiming Our Place in the Sun: The Adventure that is Indigeneity' followed by a question and answer session.

.....

Date: Wednesday, March 23rd, 2005

Time: 12:00pm - 1:30pm

Place: Room 225
Athabasca University
Edmonton Learning Centre
2nd Floor, North Tower
10030 - 107 St., Seventh Street Plaza

Contact: Lori Mandamin
(780) 428 - 2064
(800) 637 - 3725 ext. 2064
indigenous@athabascau.ca

.....

Currently Professor and Head of the Department of Native Studies, University of Saskatchewan, Dr. Maaka has participated in such groups as the Maori Legal Services and the Waitangi Tribunal. Dr. Maaka and Augie Fleras are co-authors of the forthcoming, "Politics of Indigeneity: Challenging Indigenous Peoples - State Relations in Canada and Aotearoa New Zealand". He has also published several articles, papers, and book chapters.

Dr. Maaka's research interests include: Social change in Maori and Western Canadian Aboriginal societies, Urban Maori/Aboriginal communities and societies, and Indigeneity as an international social phenomenon.

.....

Refreshments will be provided during the session.

With the exception of those requiring accommodation, seating is available on a first come first served basis. Seating capacity for this event is 30 persons.

